Variety show tonight supports Birchwood trip to Holocaust Museum

A variety show fund-raiser in support of a trip by students to a holocaust museum, as part of Asper Foundation Human Rights and Holocaust Studies Program at Birchwood Intermediate, takes place this evening in Charlottetown.

Grade 9 students at Birchwood are part of this educational program focusing on human rights.

In addition to months of special studies, the group has been involved in community service and fundraising for the trip to the world famous Holocaust Museum in Washington, D.C.

The trip takes place April 22-25.

The variety show takes place tonight (Fri. Feb. 24) at St. Paul's Church on Prince Street.

Entertainers appearing include Tim Chiasson, Patrick Ledwell, Joey Kitson, Dennis Ellsworth and Peter Forbes.

Tickets are available at the door or by calling Alex or Kelly at 569-1203.

There will also be a silent auction and fudge sale.
